Vicar's Verbals.

The thing about recovering from surgery is that it makes you realise how lucky you are to be getting better. Its like the old joke: "Why on earth are you banging your face against that brick wall?" "Because its so nice when I stop!". I only had a minor op a couple of weeks ago, but the sickness after the anaesthetic, the pain of the wound and the general helplessness afterwards are a timely reminder to me that others have to face much worse, with only the prospect of yet more illness and suffering. Being a short term invalid is a humbling experience and I have had to learn the real meaning of the term 'patient', and to receive the kindness and care of others with graciousness. It reminds me that I am always reliant upon others in sickness or in health. It is one of the mysteries of the Christian way that Jesus was at his most powerful when he made himself completely vulnerable to others. If you are sick or undergoing unpleasant treatment at the moment, then my prayers are with you. I pray that you are blessed by people around you to care for you and love you in your time of difficulty. Be powerful in your weakness by allowing others to be blessed by the kindness and love which your plight is generating in them. You are a centre for their grace and may offer them a glimpse of their own salvation.

Matthew.

A SPLENDID SERVICE AT GOREFIELD

On Sunday May 3rd David Ashton and Nathan Mace were baptized by Reverend Matthew Bradbury during the morning service.

It was a happy occasion as family and friends of David and Nathan joined with the congregation in assisting and celebrating the rite of baptism. This included the giving of a lighted candle to David and Nathan as a sign that they had 'passed from darkness into light'. The candles can be lit on special occasions as a reminder of their baptism.

We ask God's blessing on David as he goes forward for confirmation in July and Nathan as he regularly assists Dawn, Roy and Bill, the churchwardens, at Sunday worship.

WSM WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP

We had a most enjoyable time at our May Spring Social, being well entertained by Doreen Rispin as Mrs Alfred Watt, the Canadian lady who helped begin the Women's Institute in England. Her talk was followed by a fish and chip supper.

Our next meeting, on Thursday June 11th, is the planning meeting for the new year, so please bring your ideas for new speakers.

We will also be selling tickets (at £10) for the visit on July 9th to Moulton Mill, which include coach fare, entrance fee and light refreshments.

Liz Hunt.

Members were invited to study them in more detail and to ask questions. Thanks were given and refreshments enjoyed at the end of the evening.

PARSON DROVE VILLAGE PLAYERS' NEW PRODUCTION

Last year the Village Players took their youth group to the Hunstanton Drama Festival. We presented the play for the village at St Mark's chapel, and laid on a Strawberry Tea afterwards with strawberries and cream, sandwiches, scones and cakes, which everyone enjoyed immensely.

This year the Adults are taking their play called "Songbird" to the Hunstanton Festival on Saturday June 20th. It is a very amusing little play, and so we will perform it again in the Methodist Chapel, on Sunday July 12th at 4pm. Please come and enjoy the show, and then indulge yourselves afterwards.

Tickets for the Strawberry Tea are £5. They may be obtained from G Frost 870213, Mrs A Watson 450381, or Mrs J Skinner 700565.

A happy atmosphere made the Quiz Night a great success with 11 teams participating. The questions were varied and ranged from easy to very hard, but fun was had by all, and the refreshments were great! Another Quiz Night will be held later in the year.

Part of the remit for the Book Café is to arrange IT courses for a small fee. Currently we are seeking a tutor, and may have some funding available. This is in addition to the computer drop-in on Tuesday evenings with Andrew. The next Tuesdays are June 9th and 23rd, and 14th and 28th July.

JULIE'S PATCH

Recently there have been crimes committed in our parishes where there have been witnesses who have been reluctant to come forward. They have seen the people committing the crime and not informed the police. I appreciate that people do not always want to get involved, but it is important that they inform the police immediately. I don't mind an anonymous phone call or a note on my windscreen. There is always CRIMESTOPPERS where you can pass on information confidentially on 0800 555 111.

How would you feel if it was your property being stolen, damaged or vandalized, and your neighbour saw it and didn't bother to say anything? Tackling crime is not just down to the police. It is a partnership that includes YOU, the community. We need to work together to create a safer environment.

The next Panel Meeting for villages in the Wisbech Sector is to be held at Elm School on Wednesday June 24th at 7.30pm.

Call me on 0845 456 4564, or e-mail julie.coales@cambs.pnn.police.uk

OFFICERS RE-ELECTED AT PLAYING FIELD AGM

On Monday May 11th the Gorefield Playing Field Association held its annual meeting with 19 people in attendance. During the year the Association had seen an increase in income, but the Chairman remarked that the field was still under used.

The good turnout and willingness to get involved, meant that the meeting was able to fill all the available vacancies, and bring the committee up to full strength again. At the committee meeting following the AGM, John Hunt was re-elected Chairman for the year and Andrew Humphrey was elected Vice Chairman. The other main positions remained unchanged with Colin Tibbs as secretary, and Margaret Tibbs treasurer.

Other encouraging discussions related to the possible formation of a new Gorefield football club, the possible revival of the once popular Gala Day for 2010, and the potential for additional income from events previously run by the Sport and Amenity fundraising group.
